

RESIDENTIAL SERVICE - LOAD MANAGEMENT
SCHEDULE R-LM

1. AVAILABILITY

Limited availability to Members of the Cooperative taking Electric Delivery or Electric Supply and Delivery Services taken through a single meter used in and around the residence for domestic purposes and for service on a farm including preparation of the farm's products for market. Members taking service under this schedule agree to allow the Cooperative to cycle off and on the Members electric domestic water heaters and/or central air conditioners during those times that demand and energy for electricity on the Cooperative's system is anticipated to be high capacity or high cost.

This Schedule is intended for service to single residential housekeeping units and is not intended for multi-family dwellings, for processing of farm products produced by others, for separately metered operations, or for commercial or industrial purposes. The Member shall not use a motor in excess of 10 H.P. without prior approval of the Cooperative.

Availability is limited to those Members meeting the above criteria who have domestic electric hot water heaters or central air conditioning units of appropriate size and condition to justify inclusion in the Cooperative's Load Management program. All of the Members' like appliances must be connected to the Cooperative's cycling equipment.

Availability is further limited to those Members with an average billing period usage of five hundred (500) kilowatt hours based on the total for the past twelve (12) billing periods. In periods in which the usage drops below three hundred (300) kilowatt hours, no water heater credit will be given. If the billing period usage falls below five hundred (500) kilowatt hours during the months of April, May or October, or no load control was used during the month, no air conditioner credit will be given.

2. TYPE OF SERVICE

Alternating current, sixty (60) cycle, single or three phase secondary or primary, at available standard voltage. Phasing and voltage shall be at the option of the Cooperative.

Service to electric domestic water heaters is subject to control by the Cooperative during peak demand and/or energy periods each month. Service to electric central air conditioner compressors is typically subject to control by the Cooperative during peak demand and energy periods in the months of April, May, June, July, August, September and October unless required by system operating emergencies.

When the Member has the right to select an Electric Supplier and has not exercised that right, then the Cooperative shall be the electric supplier and shall provide combined Electric Supply and Delivery Service for the Member.

6. LOAD MANAGEMENT CREDIT

Each Member served under this rate shall be given a credit of two dollars ($2.00), deducted from the monthly bill, for each month that the electric domestic water heater is available to the Cooperative for de-energization during peak load periods (subject to limitations in Section One (1) above).

Each Member served under this rate shall be given a credit of two dollars ($2.00), deducted from the monthly bill for each summer month (June, July, August and September) that the central air conditioner compressor is available to the Cooperative for de-energization during peak load periods.

Each Member served under this rate shall be given a credit of two dollars ($2.00), deducted from the monthly bill for each month (April, May and October) that the central air conditioner is actually de-energized by the Cooperative during peak load periods. The credit will be given on the succeeding billing period following the month in which de-energization occurred.

7. EQUIPMENT

Each Member served under this rate agrees to allow the Cooperative to install, own, maintain or remove, at no expense to the Member, all equipment by the Cooperative to accomplish the purpose described herein.

8. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A. The terms and conditions, applicable only to Electric Delivery or Electric Supply and Delivery Service Members of the Delaware Electric Cooperative, Inc., shall govern where applicable, the delivery of service under this service classification.

B. Any action by the Member or agent to deactivate, circumvent or otherwise render the control system ineffective shall constitute tampering and be subject to disconnection as provided in Section 13.1.1 and 13.1.5. In such situations, the device will be removed, the cost of installation, removal and repair, if necessary, will be charged to the Member. If the time of the tampering can be determined, the amount of credits issued during that time period will be recaptured and charged to the Member. If the time of the tampering cannot be determined, the amount of the credits issued since the installation of the device will be recaptured and charged to the Member. In no event shall the period for recapture extend beyond thirty-six (36) months. Payment may be required to continue service. A deposit may also be required as provided under Section 12.9.4.6. Legal remedies may be taken as deemed appropriate.

9. TERMS OF PAYMENT

The bills are due when rendered and are past due in twenty-seven (27) days from the date of the bill. Upon written notice of past due account and notice of termination of service, the Cooperative may terminate service.
